

Arzoo Sandhu

As a Textile and Apparel Designer, I am driven by a deep passion for infusing unusual and fun elements into my work, all while embracing a cheerful and energetic spirit. This exciting field of textile design offers me the perfect canvas to explore my creativity, allowing me to delve into various print media, weaving techniques, and surface manipulation. I take great delight in crafting patterns and textures using contrasting mediums, constantly seeking new challenges to push the boundaries of my skills and expertise.

I embark on a journey of joy, learning, and exploration, infusing my designs with the vibrant energy that defines who I am as a designer.
